

Chris Batten MA, BFA.

An accomplished artist, Chris holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Memorial University (1997) and a Master of Arts Degree (Museum Studies) from the University of Leicester (2000).

This CBS artist draws inspiration from Newfoundland and Labrador's rich culture and landscapes. Through his exploration of woodcut reduction techniques, Chris tells compelling stories and shares his experiences through his art. His work has been recognized in public and private collectors across Canada, the United Kingdom, the USA, and New Zealand."
